Globe, Arizona
Mc Cain Proud of Progress in Superior

This month, Congress approved and the President signed into law legislation that paves the way for the expansion of the Resolution Copper Mine in Superior, Arizona. I’m extremely proud to have worked as a team with my Arizona colleagues in the Senate and House, most notably Senator Jeff Flake, Congressman Paul Gosar, and Congresswoman Ann Kirkpatrick, to advance this legislation.

The Resolution Copper Mine is a tremendous opportunity for Arizona and the United States both economically and strategically. This project will tap the largest copper deposit ever discovered in North America. Over time, it will produce billions of dollars in capital investment brought new technologies that made it possible to bore deeper into the ore body. However, in order to maximize production and job growth, the mine must expand its footprint onto adjacent Forest Service property.

Nearly ten years ago, Senator Kyl and I first introduced a bill known as the Southeast Arizona Land Exchange and Conservation Act, which proposed to transfer to approximately 2,400 acres of Forest Service land to Resolution Copper so that the mine could grow. In exchange, the company would transfer to the federal government about 5,000 acres of the company’s most environmentally-significant land located throughout the state.

Unfortunately, our bill was stalled for many years over concerns raised by a number of environmental groups, some of whom take a hard-line position against mining. At the same time, Native American tribes began voicing speculation about the mine’s potential to damage nearby areas. While the land exchange does not involve any Indian lands or federally-recognized sacred sites, tribes worried that the majestic Apache Leap Cliff—celebrated by Apache folklore—could somehow be impacted by the mine.

Years of Congressional hearings were held in both chambers of Congress to examine these and other concerns. After much negotiation, a bipartisan, bicameral compromise bill was added to the National Defense Authorization Act this December. This was entirely appropriate, given that copper is the second most-utilized metal by the Defense Department and is necessary for supplying our armed forces with equipment, ammunition, and electronics.

But it is important to note that the land exchange bill enacted by Congress contains several key bipartisan concessions that make it fundamentally different from the original bill. First, the mine will be required to undergo a full environmental impact study before any land is officially traded. Second, the bill mitigates Native American concerns over the loss of a Forest Service campsite, known as Oak Flat Campground, where traditional activities are occasionally organized. As a condition of the land exchange, tribes can continue to use Oak Flat for many years until the company needs to mine underneath it. Finally, the bill forbids the mine from damaging Apache Leap and designates the cliffs as a Forest Service special management area, placing it under permanent federal protection.

I respect the views of environmental advocates and Native Americans. But I also believe that this legislation strikes the right balance in allowing the mine to move forward while addressing their concerns. Arizona is ready for this mine, and Resolution Copper is ready to hire from surrounding communities and tribal members whenever possible, as they’ve publicly pledged. I’m very proud that by working together, we were able to advance this crucial project, one that will contribute to Arizona’s economic prosperity throughout the 21st century.

Edmundo ‘Kito’ V. Alvarado

Kito was born on Dec. 13, 1938 in Sonora, Ariz. the son of Santos and Eleanor (Valencia) Alvarado. Kito is survived by his wife, Maria “Teddy” Alvarado; son, Christopher Alvarado; daughter, Monalisa Speers; and 10 grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his son, Edmundo “Mundo” Alvarado.

Funeral Services will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 30, 2014 at the Infant Jesus of Prague Catholic Church, Kearny, Ariz. Mass at 11 a.m., Rosary at 10 a.m. and Visitation starting at 9 a.m. with a reception to follow at the church.

As we end 2014, I thought I would look back at several significant items this year that provided its share of challenges and hopes that we are turning the corner toward a brighter economic future.

The big issue on nearly everyone’s mind during the summer of this year was the unaccompanied minors from Central America being temporarily housed at Sycamore Canyon Academy, located just east of Oracle.

Most of these children were fleeing terrible conditions in their home countries. The influx put the Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and the Office of Refugee Resettlement into a Catch-22. These Federal Agencies couldn’t just return these minor children back to where they came from and there were very few places to house these kids. The good people at Sycamore Canyon Academy were able to bring in a number of these unaccompanied minors over a period of time and house them until they and the Office of Refugee Resettlement were able to come up with a disposition in their cases.

Although there was a little controversy over the unaccompanied minors program, thanks to the Oracle residents and Frank Pierson and Mary Ellen Kazda the “Open Hearts” program brought calm, peace and a neighborly welcome to these children and their unfortunate situation.

The county was able to save a couple of million taxpayer dollars this year as the Supervisors were able to take advantage of some historically low interest rates and refinance old debt and bond for some new projects. The interest rates we were quoted are right on track and somewhat lower than anticipated. The new bonds include new, up-graded radio communications for deputy sheriff vehicles, improvements to the Superior Court Facility and improvements to Hunt Highway.

The Board also approved a Capital Improvement Plan that includes funds for paving the dirt portion of Veterans Memorial Highway in San Manuel and chip sealing 8 miles of Redington Road to the Pima County line.

After approximately 6 years I can report that Resolution Copper will finally be conducting an Environmental Impact Study and developing their property for the mine in Superior. This was a divisive issue amongst some members of the San Carlos Apache Community and environmentalists. Although there are still barriers ahead, this project should provide the Copper Corridor, Pinal County, the State of Arizona and the Nation a much needed economic boost.

Speaking of the Copper Corridor, we have approved an additional $10,000 for funding a study to find out if it is feasible for an area broadband internet service. This service would be an important link to helping our first responders communicate, to bring in telemedicine services and to help our teachers with more timely education tools. I am hopeful this effort will help current internet providers and result in better services for the entire Copper Corridor area and bring in businesses that would employ more people in our area.

My best wishes for each and every one of you to have a safe and happy 2015. It is an honor serving you as a member of the Pinal County Board of Supervisors.

The Town of Winkelman has the second out of seven ore carts completed in the Copper Corridor. The Town of Mammoth had the first one completed. Artist, Nancy Dunst from Sedona had been working on the ore cart in Winkelman and recently finished it. Patience, hard work and dedication went into this project.

The Copper Ore Cart Trail highlights the unique copper mining history and culture of this region. The purpose of the Ore Cart Trail is to attract tourism. The Ore Cart Trail has much to offer with the scenic route and natural attractions such as the San Pedro River, the Gila River and the various mountain ranges.

The idea for the Copper Corridor Ore Cart Trail was conceived of by artist Mary Myers of Mammoth who suggested it to the Copper Corridor Coalition. The Winkelman project partnered with Arizona Department of Transportation, ASARCO, Sky Engineering, Copper Basin Railway, S.E. Consultants, the Southern Gila County Economic Development Corporation and the Town of Winkelman.

Nancy Dunst is a self-taught Arizona artist. She has been creating art for over 35 years. She works on three dimensional, profound and humorous projects. She uses fiber, wood, metal, polymer, glass, stone, cement and paint. She creates mobiles, mosaics, weaving, sculptures and art installation. She has been commissioned by Sky Harbor Airport, Tempe, Wells Fargo, Sedona, The Kierland Resort and several other corporations.

If you have a chance to stop by the Winkelman Ore Cart and enjoy the amazing talent of Nancy Dunst please do so. Nancy Dunst put in many hours to complete this project and it is truly beautiful!

Local author shares the story of life in Aravaipa

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

Georgianna “Georgie” Wood has lived in the Copper Corridor for many years. She grew up in Hayden and now lives in Kearny. A large part of her life was spent along Aravaipa Creek after she married Cliff Wood and became part of an Aravaipa ranching family. Georgie has always had an interest in history and if you have read her “Georgie Digs” articles in the Copper Basin News, you know she has a knack for writing and telling stories. Georgie has written a book, “A Creekside Story from Buckboard Days to Ecotourism,” which includes her interest in history and her memories and love of the Aravaipa Creek area.

The book is part history and part autobiographical. It includes stories about the area and the people that lived along the creek we know as Aravaipa. It also includes people and stories of Hayden, Mammoth, Oracle and the surrounding areas. Georgie has researched the history and gathered stories from her ranching family, the people she has known along the creek and her personal experiences. She also adds a touch of her humor throughout the book.

The Aravaipa history begins with the Apaches that lived in the area and the infamous Camp Grant massacre followed by the early settlers like Emil Kiellberg and the Brandenburg brothers who farmed and ranched along the creek. It tells the stories of the farmers and ranchers along the creek and their struggles with floods, bad men, wildlife, environmentalists and government bureaucracy as they attempted to make a living. Learn about the hard times and good times of ranching along the Aravaipa, from the Angora goats to the Hualapai (Wallapai) tigers. Georgie brings the area to life and has interesting stories to tell about characters like cowboy Jo Flieger, author Elizabeth Lambert Woods, author and environmentalist Ed Abbey and even World War II hero and Hollywood actor Audie Murphy. It is a good quick read and educates as well as entertains.

Georgie’s book is available on Amazon at http://amzn.to/1AdYtc0.

The kick-off day for our Journey to a Clean Kearny, Saturday, January 7, is about two weeks away. Here’s hoping that day will dawn bright and beautiful and on the warm side! Several community groups have responded to the call for volunteers on that day. We need even more volunteers, of course, and this is my request for your involvement.

The event will begin at 8 a.m. at Constitution Hall. Team leader Rose Bradford will line out all the tasks involved and have everyone sign a liability waiver before sending everyone out to locations around Kearny for the actual work. As a volunteer, you are asked to bring gloves and work clothes. Please bring your own tools, too, such as rakes and shovels and “grabby things” for litter pickup. Pickup trucks and trailers are requested as well. There will be plenty of trash bags to be gotten.

I hope all of us will take advantage of this opportunity. If you plan to have brush piles or items to be picked up that day, call Kearny Town Hall at 363-5547 and give your address. As you clean and sort things at home, get them ready to set out by the curb early on Saturday morning.

Some items cannot be picked up, including batteries and motor oil. The NAPA store uptown will gladly take your old batteries, and on that Saturday the town yard on Emery will be open to receive any used motor oil. Tires? Well, we’re working on that and hope to have an answer soon.

Please keep a lookout for people who may need help, especially those who are ill and those who are elderly. Maybe an organization or neighborhood group can be organized to tackle a home and yard or an empty lot. If so, please contact Town Hall or Rose Bradford and let us know what you hope to do. And, if you are ailing or elderly, please ask your friends to help you or call Town Hall and let us know you need some help. We will see what we can do.

I hope this will be the largest and most effective town cleanup Kearny has ever had. I know everything can’t be done it a day, but won’t it be great to see some real progress?

This will be the first of several events in our Journey for a Clean Kearny. The committee is working on ways to assist with home repair and plantings in our yards and town parks, and there may be another cleanup day as well.

So please lend your aid and, as a volunteer on the 17th, please be as safe as possible in all that you do. Work hard, drink plenty of water, and don’t let blisters develop!
